

Boulder Statement on Legal Research

Legal research is the analysis, search process, information evaluation, and reasoning necessary to ethically solve problems and provide legal advice. Legal research is integral to lawyers' professional competence.

Boulder Conference Signatories

Chicago, Illinois July 2016

David Armond

Brigham Young University

Barbara Bintliff

University of Texas, Austin

Paul Callister

University of Missouri, Kansas City

Susan David deMaine

Indiana University

Amy Emerson

Cornell University

Andrew Florance

University of Texas, Austin

Heidi Heller

Schnader Harrison Segal & Lewis LLP

Yolanda Jones

Florida A&M University College

Benjamin Keele

Indiana University

Dennis Kim-Prieto

Rutgers University

Sarah Lamdan

The City University of New York

Taryn Marks

University of Florida

Susan Nevelow Mart

University of Colorado, Boulder

Andrew Martineau

University of Nevada, Las Vegas

Shawn Nevers

Brigham Young University

Carol Ottolenghi

Ohio Attorney General's Office

Maria Protti

San Francisco, CA

Becka Rich

Nova Southeastern University

Jill Smith

Georgetown University

Nicholas Stump

West Virginia University

Rebecca Trammel

Stetson University

Stephanie Wilson

Seattle University

Stephen Wolfson

University of North Texas