

Boulder Statement on Legal Information Literacy

Legal Information Literacy is the ability to recognize the need for legal information, and to proficiently research, evaluate, and synthesize that information to resolve legal problems ethically. Legal information literacy is integral to lawyers' professional competence.

Boulder Conference Signatories

Baltimore, Maryland July 2018

Barbara Bintliff

University of Texas, Austin

Xin Chen

Boston College

Tina Ching

University of Oregon

Nicole M. Downing

University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

Peter Hook

Cornell University

Yolanda P. Jones

Florida A&M University

Dennis Kim-Prieto

Rutgers University

Sarah Lamdan

City University of New York

Susan Nevelow Mart

University of Colorado, Boulder

Shawn Nevers

Brigham Young University

Shannon Roddy

American University

Ariel A.E. Scotese

Cornell University

Thomas Sneed

Washburn University

Scott Uhl

University of Minnesota

Alex Zhang

Stanford University